

Statistics for Higgs search and discovery

Tuesday, 4 December 2012 09:15 (45 minutes)

The LHC statistical method is based on the Profile Likelihood test statistics and its asymptotic formalism. In this lecture the statistical methods (including the so called Look Elsehere Effect) and their implications on the Higgs search and discovery at the LHC will be reviewed.

Primary author: Prof. GROSS, Eilam (Weizmann Institute of Science)

Presenter: Prof. GROSS, Eilam (Weizmann Institute of Science)