

Radon in the mines

High radon levels are found in the underground mines in South Africa. The CNSA has decided to fund a project to study ways of improving the regulations for the large number of underground miners in South Africa.

This presentation will consider some of the issues related to this study.

Primary author: LINDSAY, Robbie (UWC)

Co-author: Ms MOLAHLEHI, Prudence (UWC)

Presenter: LINDSAY, Robbie (UWC)

Session Classification: Environmental Measurements

Track Classification: Environmental Measurements